
Thomas Jackson Ashley

ASHLEY, THOMAS JACKSON, age 84, passed away on December 25, 2010 in Orlando. He died in the faith of Christ and is survived by his wife of 38 years, Pat; daughter, Brett of Ann Arbor, Michigan; and son, David of Marshall, Michigan. Tom was born in Hazard, Kentucky on July 27, 1926 to Jesse and Gladys Noble Ashley. Tom graduated from the University of Michigan and taught English Literature at the University of Connecticut for two years. He served in the Army in Germany in World War II and worked for the Ann Arbor News, Harcourt Brace and Company, and the Royal Oak Tribune. Most recently, he did computer work for Crown Ministries. Tom was friendly and tender-hearted, of great intellect, and articulate. He was well-liked by friends and neighbors. There will be a brief service at Greenwood Cemetery, Orlando, on Wednesday, December 29th at 1pm with arrangements by Baldwin-Fairchild. All who knew Tom are welcome to attend. Hospice of the Comforter attended him at home and was a great help to him and the family. "... I am the resurrection and the life. He who believes in me, though he may die, he shall live. And whoever lives and believes in me shall never die ..." -John 11:25, 26.

Published in the Orlando Sentinel on December 28, 2010
